

Profile of K. Rajasekhar,

Won over 30 (thirty) National & International awards for various initiatives in the Information Technology & Communication Sector.

Authored and published /presented over Thirty (30) research articles in the National and International fora. Including in IEEE and Springer Journals.

Has Nearly Thirty (30) years of Work Experience in the Information Technology and Communication field, and gained several man years of domain knowledge in thirty sectors of Socio-Economic Development.

Created first dynamic portal in the country (twenty) 20 years back, created first low cost hyper scaling system to perform tens of lakhs of transactions per day in the country, created first DBT system in the country in 2008, created first Govt Blockchain Framework in the country.

At present functioning as Dy Director General and Head of Centre for Data Governance, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India, besides heading National Informatics Centre, in Telangana,